STATEMENT:

This policy is provided to deal with any grievances or disputes concerning any University policy, procedure or disciplinary action related to admission, final grades, transfer credit, probation, or suspension for academic reasons from a course, program or the institution¹, the interruption or suspension from a program based on student suitability to the profession, or the interpretation of any policies related to these issues. While this policy does not constitute a judicial process, all stages of the academic appeal process will be carried out in accordance with the principles of due process (e.g. the right to be heard, the right to a hearing from an unbiased tribunal). Students should contact the office of the Executive Director, Student Services for information regarding the academic appeal process.

Forms:
